Hi. Tang,

Thanks for this email. It is good to hear that we still have the opportunity to visit there. For my scheduling, my class starts on April 1 and every Thursday afterwards. For now, if we can possibly avoid Thursday, I might be able to join. But, please talk to Enrico as well. He is also one of the research team.

Keep in touch.
Bests,

Hee-Chan Song

Dear Hee-Chan Song

Hope this email finds you well.

Although the covid-19 outbreak is spreading and the number of infected people is not decreasing, we are allowed to travel domestically with ourselves's best protection.

I am writing to you in order to notify if you are convenient to visit Doi Tung for your research trip. Starting in early March, we have few study visit groups come to Doi Tung continually. Though this is not a perfect time but we think it is a time to start and we are very welcome you and your team as well.

We can discuss the travel plan and the program if you need, please let me know

Looking forward to welcoming you
Best,

Tang
